

Who We Are

SWPWO is a network of individuals interested in sound woodland management practices to encourage the diverse use of forests for:

- Recreation
- Wildlife Habitat
- Watershed Protection
- Timber Production

SWPWO promotes this multi-use philosophy through education and technical assistance for the benefit of network members and the general public.